

THE GLOBE THEATRE
104 London Street
NEWSLETTER: May 2016
Next production

An Unseasonable Fall of Snow

A Word from the Director, Jeffrey Vaughan

“An Unseasonable Fall of Snow was written in 1998 by New Zealander Gary Henderson. It is a puzzle. Who are these men? What is their relationship? It’s obvious that a crime has been committed but what and by whom? An Unseasonable Fall of Snow has a huge twist that you won’t see coming”.

This will be a wonderful production. Please support your Globe. Buy tickets and tell everyone you can about it!

Season Dates:

Thursday 9 June to Saturday 18 June 7.30 pm.
Sunday 12 June 2.00 pm. (No show Monday 13 June)

Ticket prices:

Globe members $15

General $25; Concession $20

Groups of 5 or more $20

School students (with ID) $10

Opening Night Special $15 everyone

2016 AGM

The AGM of the Friends of the Globe was held on Sunday 24 April and was well attended. The Chair thanked the two departing committee members – Dale Neill and Don Knewstubb. Don had served on the committee for 10 years and his dedication to the theatre was recognised by all present. The committee for 2016 is as follows:

Chair, Rosemary Beresford; Deputy Chair, Keith Scott; Treasurer, Lynne Keen; Secretary, Alison Finigan, Committee members, Brian Beresford, Brian Byas, Paul Ellicott, Helen Fearnley, Ray Fleury, MiguelNitis

It was proposed and carried that the committee begin initial investigation and discussions with architects and suppliers about the conservation of the Globe house. So onwards to stage 2!

TOYBOX THEATRE

Our new venture into children’s theatre was a great success. Leanne Byas is currently working on the July school holidays show. So bring the kids along. They will love it, and so will you!

TOYBOX AUDITIONS

Leanne is looking for 6 young actors, teens and 20s, for the next production on stage 11 to 16 July. Auditions will be held SAT 21 MAY at the Globe between 11.30am and 12.30pm

2016 TRUST POWER COMMUNITY AWARDS

The Friends of the Globe was the winner in the Arts and Culture section of these awards. Keith Scott and Alison Finigan accepted the award and the $500 prize on behalf of the Friends at the ceremony held at Toitū Otago Settlers’ Museum last month.

CHANGE OF END OF YEAR PRODUCTION

Previously advertised as Alan Ayckbourn’s Life and Beth, this will now be Charley’s Aunt by Brandon Thomas. The director is Brian Beresford.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We always welcome people to be part of the Globe as actors or to assist in productions, but we are putting out a particular call for volunteers to help the theatre in the following capacities: Front of House, set construction and painting; graphic design and formatting. If you can’t help please ask people who might be able to. We need you!

Contact Globe email: secretary@globetheatre.org.nz
Or phone Keith Scott, Deputy Chair, on 03 425 0540

SUNDAY SERIES 1

Brighten up your winter Sundays with a visit to the Globe, a hot drink, a sweet treat, and good theatre!

Freud's Last Session by Mark St Germain
Sunday 3 July 2.00 pm (Rehearsed reading)
This will feature Nigel Ensor, Warren Chambers and Keith Scott

THEATREFEST 2016

The Globe will be hosting a regional round of Theatre NZ's One Act Play Festival 2016 on Friday 19 and Saturday 20 August.

If anyone wishes to submit a script for consideration as a Globe Theatre entry please contact the Globe via our website.

If any one wishes to submit a one act play for this competition as an individual, please contact the organisers on 021 0237 6397 or email theatrefest2015@gmail.com.

ANTIGONE ANYONE?

Harry Love putting together a dramatised lecture on Sophocles' Antigone for classical studies, and drama, literature school students. He needs a male actor, of any age, to play some chorus parts and the big messenger speech. If interested please contact Harry. email hlove@clear.net.nz

CALL FOR AUDITIONS – MARY STUART

The Globe will be presenting Schiller's historical political thriller Mary Stuart, about the last days of Mary Queen of Scots in February 1587, in a new version by Keith Scott for the 2016 Otago Festival of the Arts. On stage 29 September to 8 October

The female roles and some of the male roles were cast after the initial call for interest advertised in March. Now we need the rest!

FIRST ROUND OF AUDITIONS AT THE GLOBE SATURDAY 11 JUNE BETWEEN 11 AM AND 2.00 PM

Major roles

Edward Mortimer, Paulet's nephew, age teens/20s
George Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury, age 50s/60s
William Cecil Lord High Treasurer of England, age 40s/50s

Minor roles

Francis Walsingham,	age 30s/50s
William Davison,	age teens/20s
Count Aubespine	age 20s/50s
Count Simier	age 20s/30s
Andrew Melville	age 30s/50s
Connor O'Kelly	any age
A Court Sergeant	any age
2 Men at Arms	any age
Man at Arms	any age

Contact: Keith Scott ph 03 425 0540 or 021 0821 2544 or email keithdougscott@gmail.com

Globe email: secretary@globetheatre.org.nz

Globe website: www.globetheatre.org.nz

Globe phone: (03) 477 3274

Find us on Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Globe-Theatre-Dunedin/185864354769841>