

GLOBE THEATRE DUNEDIN NEWS: January 2018

the amateur theatre with the professional attitude

Wyrd Sisters - Opening Night Thursday 22 February

Written by Terry Pratchett and adapted for the stage by Stephen Briggs, the three "black and midnight hags" in a sorting out of things in another world than Shakespeare's Macbeth. Meet the witches of the Discworld - Granny Weatherwax, Nanny Ogg and Magrat Garlick, as well as the host of characters that surround them. Sofie Welvaart directs.

As well as the normal opening night special of $15 for all tickets we will also be offering a two for the price of one for the performance on Friday 23 February. Two nights of great ticket deals. Book now so you don't miss out.

The three "Wyrd Sisters" rehearsing a bit of magic (from left Sandy Cleary, Brenda Jones, Kimberley Buchan)

Bookings are open on the website now, so make sure you get your tickets early as this will be a popular show.

Friends of the Globe Annual General Meeting

This will be held at the Globe on Sunday 25 March 2018 starting at 3.pm. More detail and the 2017 financial statements and annual reports will be sent out prior to the meeting. Come along and show support, meet your committee and learn first-hand about the 2018 season and the stage two preservation operation.

Membership Renewal

If you are present members of the Friends of the Globe Theatre subscribing annually, please can you renew your membership, now. If you were not subscribing members for 2017, or even earlier than last year, you will still be receiving this newsletter. But would you please consider supporting the Globe by becoming members again? We need your support and a few dollars goes a long way. Go to the globetheatre.org.nz website for details about renewing or reinstating and click the tab that reads MEMBERSHIP then click on ABOUT. Easy! Online payments can be made to our Westpac A/C no. 03 0903 0451937 00 for online payments – but cheques are also accepted and can be sent to Globe Theatre, PO Box 5334, Moray Place, Dunedin 9058.

We rely on, and very much appreciate your continued subscription. You may not be aware but as well as helping financially in a direct way, a healthy membership is also a factor when funders are considering grants. So your membership helps our continued fund raising efforts.

Auditions – *The Devil and Mr Mulcahy

Set in rural New Zealand in the late 1960's this quirky and philosophical drama by acclaimed Dunedin born poet and playwright James K. Baxter follows the consequences of resentment, religion and repression which lead to tragedy. This production will be directed by Paul Ellicott

1 male to play mid to late teens

1 female to play mid to late teens

1 male to play 20s-30s

1 female to play 30s-50s

1 male to play 30s-50s

Email paulellicott@hotmail.com or phone 027 3233951 with any questions, or to arrange an alternative time if the scheduled audition time is unsuitable.

Auditions will be held at the Globe, 104 London St Sunday 11 February 2-4pm.
The production will be on stage for a three-night season, 1-3 June.

Free Firewood

After a clear out of the workshop we have a pile of assorted wood outside the theatre - mainly useful only for firewood - that is free anyone who cares to come by and collect it.